Chinese New Year celebrations mark the beginning of Spring, it begins on the First Day of the Lunar Calendar Year and ends on the 15th Day (known as Chap Goh Mei). Each year of the Lunar Calendar in the cycle is associated with an animal sign, the Year of the Pig is twelfth in the cycle of the Twelve zodiac animal signs. According to the Chinese Zodiac Cycle of the Heavenly Earthly Branches, 2019 is the auspicious year of the Earth Pig which commences on 5 February 2019 and ends on 24 January 2020. People born in the Year of the Pig are considerate, responsible, independent, optimistic, generous, warm-hearted, loyal and honest.

To usher in the auspicious Chinese New Year, there will be a Spectacular Lion Dance on the First Day of Lunar New Year, 5 February 2019.
